

JOHN F. KENNEDY HIGH SCHOOL ALUMNI ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP PROGRAM

General Information: The John F. Kennedy High School Alumni Association Scholarship Program awards a scholarship to a Kennedy High School senior who exemplifies excellence in a variety of school activities coupled with a dedication toward Kennedy High School. The Kennedy Alumni Association will award one $500 Scholarship in the spring of 2015 toward the recipient's post graduate studies or training in the 2015-2016 year. The Scholarship recipient will be announced on or before May 15, 2015.

Upon review of the applications, the Scholarship Committee will conduct interviews of the top 3 scholarship candidates. Applicants will be notified in writing regarding interview details. One scholarship recipient will then be selected from the top three.

Eligibility: To be eligible to receive a scholarship, applicants must meet all of the following criteria:

- * be a United States Citizen;
- * be a graduating senior from John F. Kennedy High School;
- * have applied to and ultimately be accepted by and enrolled in a four year university, two year college, or other post-graduate studies or training;
- * have a 3.0 grade point average or above;
- * complete the Kennedy Alumni Association Program application
